CHARACTERISTICS OF GEM

GEM has been positioned as a market designed to accommodate small and mid-sized companies to which a higher investment risk may be attached than other companies listed on the Stock Exchange. Prospective investors should be aware of the potential risks of investing in such companies and should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration.

Given that the companies listed on GEM are generally small and mid-sized companies, there is a risk that securities traded on GEM may be more susceptible to high market volatility than securities traded on the Main Board and no assurance is given that there will be a liquid market in the securities traded on GEM.

BACKGROUND

References are made to (i) the joint announcements of the Company and China Smartpay Group Holdings Limited dated 10 June 2020 and 26 June 2020 in relation to, among others, the placing of the Convertible Bonds under the general mandate by the Company; (ii) the announcements of the Company dated 24 June 2022, 1 September 2022 and 20 September 2022 and the circular of the Company dated 11 August 2022 in relation to, among others, the First Amendments; (iii) the announcements of the Company dated 18 October 2022, 21 October 2022 and 28 February 2023 and the circular of the Company dated 10 February 2023 in relation to the Second Amendments; (iv) the announcement of the Company dated 19 October 2022 in relation to the transfer of the Convertible Bonds to Metagate and Mr. Choy; and (v) the announcements of the Company dated 2 January 2024 and the circular of the Company dated 21 February 2024 in relation to the Third Amendments.

On 10 June 2020, the Company entered into a placing agreement (the “CB Placing Agreement”) with SBI as placing agent, pursuant to which the Company agreed to place through SBI the Convertible Bonds in an aggregate principal amount of up to HK$11,850,000 to not less than six placees at the initial conversion price of HK$0.15 per Share upon and subject to the provisions of the CB Placing Agreement and the CB Terms and Conditions. Completion of the placing of the Convertible Bonds in an aggregate principal amount of HK$11,850,000 to six placees took place on 26 June 2020. The aggregate number of Shares which may fall to be allotted and issued by the Company upon conversion of the Convertible Bonds in full at the initial conversion price of HK$0.15 per Share is 79,000,000 Shares.

On 24 June 2022, the Company executed the First Addendum to amend and/or alter the CB Terms and Conditions with a view to giving effect to the extension of the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds for a period of six months. The First Addendum took effect on 20 September 2022 with the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds extended for a period of six months to 23 December 2022.

On 18 October 2022, the Company executed the Second Addendum to amend and/or alter the CB Terms and Conditions with a view to giving effect to (i) further extend the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds for a period of twelve months; (ii) delete the additional interest at the rate of 10% per annum on the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds in any event if the Bondholder has not exercised any of its Conversion Rights to convert the whole or any part of the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds during the Conversion Period; (iii) adjust the conversion price of the Convertible Bonds to HK$0.1 per Conversion Share; and (iv) extend the scope of the Conversion Rights to convert the whole or part of the aggregate sum of the outstanding principal amount and any outstanding accrued interest of the Convertible Bonds into Conversion Shares during the Conversion Period.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

On 19 October 2022, the Company was informed by the then Bondholders that they had entered into the Transfer Agreements to transfer the Convertible Bonds to Metagate and Mr. Choy. Specifically, out of the total principal amount of HK$11,850,000, Metagate acquired HK$6,380,000, while Mr. Choy acquired HK$5,470,000.

On 2 January 2024, the Company executed the Third Addendum to amend and/or alter the CB Terms and Conditions with a view to giving effect to (i) further extension of the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds for a period of one year; (ii) adjust the interest rate of 7% accrued on the principal amount of the outstanding Convertible Bonds payable by the Company to 12% per annum; (iii) charge a Default Interest of 20% on any overdue principal and accrued interest of the outstanding Convertible Bonds payable by the Company; and (iv) adjust the conversion price of the Convertible Bonds to HK$0.088 per Conversion Share.

Pursuant to the CB Terms and Conditions (as amended by the Third Addendum), the Convertible Bonds mature on the date falling upon the expiry of four years and six months from the date on which the Convertible Bonds are issued or if such date is not a Business Day, the immediately preceding Business Day (which is 24 December 2024 (the “Existing Maturity Date”)).

On 30 December 2024, by virtue of the written resolutions signed and approved by all existing Bondholders who hold the total outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds, the Bondholders have conditionally agreed to the Proposed Fourth Amendments. Additionally, the Bondholders have unconditionally confirmed to the Company that:

- (i) the Company is not required to redeem the Convertible Bonds in full on the maturity date (as extended by the Third Addendum); and
- (ii) the Company will not be in breach of any of the CB Terms and Conditions as a result of not redeeming or converting the Convertible Bonds.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, the total principal amount of HK$11,850,000 (the “Outstanding Principal Amount”) and the total accrued interest of approximately HK$4,256,585 (the “Latest Outstanding Accrued Interest”) for the Convertible Bonds remain outstanding. None of the Convertible Bonds has been redeemed nor converted into Shares through the exercise of the attached Conversion Rights. The Latest Outstanding Accrued Interest is calculated based on the following formulas:

Outstanding Principal Amount (i.e., HK$11,850,000)	x	7%	x	Accrued period of 1,093 days covering the period from 29 December 2020 to 26 December 2023
				365 days
Outstanding Principal Amount (i.e., HK$11,850,000)	x	12%	x	Accrued period of 455 days covering the period from 27 December 2023 to the Latest Practicable Date

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

THE FOURTH ADDENDUM

Pursuant to the terms of the Fourth Addendum, subject to the fulfilment of the Conditions Precedent, it is agreed between the Company and the Bondholders that the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds shall be further extended from “the date falling upon the expiry of four years and six months from the date on which the Convertible Bonds are issued or if such date is not a Business Day, the immediate preceding Business Day” (which is 24 December 2024) to “the date falling upon the expiry of six years and six months from the date on which the Convertible Bonds are issued, or if such date is not a Business Day, the immediate preceding Business Day” (which is 24 December 2026).

Save for the Proposed Fourth Amendments, all other terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds shall remain unchanged, and the outstanding Convertible Bonds shall remain in full force, validity, and effect in accordance with the terms set out therein.

Conditions Precedent

The Fourth Addendum and the CB Terms and Conditions shall take effect subject to the fulfilment of all of the following conditions precedent (the “Conditions Precedent”):

- (a) the Stock Exchange having granted approval for the Proposed Fourth Amendments as contemplated under the Fourth Addendum pursuant to Rule 34.05 of the GEM Listing Rules;
- (b) the GEM Listing Committee having granted or agreed to grant approval for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Conversion Shares which shall fall to be allotted and issued by the Company upon exercise of the Conversion Rights attached to the Convertible Bonds as amended and supplemented by the Fourth Addendum;
- (c) the Shareholders having granted their approval for the allotment and issue of the Conversion Shares by the Company upon exercise of the Conversion Rights attached to the Convertible Bonds as amended and supplemented by the Fourth Addendum; and
- (d) all other necessary consent(s) and approval(s) in respect of the entering into of the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including but not limited to the Proposed Fourth Amendments) and the allotment and issue of the Conversion Shares by the Company upon conversion of the Convertible Bonds having been obtained by the Company.

To the best of the Directors’ knowledge, information, and belief, and after conducting all reasonable inquiries, as of the Latest Practicable Date, the necessary consents and approvals as stated in condition (d) above refer to the resolutions of Metagate regarding the approval of the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated therein.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

If any of the above Conditions Precedent is not fulfilled on or before 30 April 2025 (or such later date as may be mutually agreed by the Company and the Bondholders), the Fourth Addendum shall lapse and terminate, and the Proposed Fourth Amendments will not take effect. None of the Conditions Precedent is waivable by the Company or the Bondholders.

As at the Latest Practicable Date, none of the aforesaid Conditions Precedent has been fulfilled.

Effect of the Fourth Addendum

The Proposed Fourth Amendments will apply to the outstanding Convertible Bonds as of the date when the CB Terms and Conditions become effective or unconditional, provided that the outstanding balance of the Convertible Bonds has not been converted, released, or cancelled.

Save for the Proposed Fourth Amendments, all other terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds shall remain unchanged, and the outstanding Convertible Bonds shall remain in full force, validity, and effect in accordance with the terms set out therein.

The Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest and the Conversion Shares

Subject to the Proposed Fourth Amendments as provided under the Fourth Addendum becoming effective, based on the sum of the Outstanding Principal Amount (i.e., HK$11,850,000) and the maximum aggregate outstanding accrued interest (including accrued interest of HK$6,746,059 up to the New Maturity Date and the accrued Default Interest of HK$2,560,271 up to the New Maturity Date; assuming that no accrued interest would be settled between the Latest Practicable Date and the New Maturity Date) of the Convertible Bonds as at the New Maturity Date of HK$9,306,330 (the “Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest”), a maximum number of 240,412,840 Conversion Shares shall be allotted and issued upon exercise in full of the Conversion Rights (including a maximum number of 105,753,749 Conversion Shares in respect of the Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest).

Assuming that there is no repayment of any accrued interest (including accrued Default Interest) of the Convertible Bonds by the Company during the period from the Latest Practicable Date to the New Maturity Date, the Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest (i.e., HK$9,306,330) is calculated based on the following formula:

Accrued Interest

(i) Before the Third Amendments:

$$\begin{array}{rcccl} \text{Aggregate Outstanding} & & & \text{Interest period of 1,093 days} & \\ \text{Principal Amount} & \times & 7\% & \text{covering the period from} & \\ \text{(i.e., HK$11,850,000)} & & \times & \text{29 December 2020}^{(1)} \text{ to} & \\ & & & \text{26 December 2023}^{(2)} & = \text{HK$2,483,955} \\ & & & \hline & & & \text{365 days} & \end{array}$$

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The accrued interest before the Third Amendments represents accrued interest amount of the outstanding principal amount with original interest rate (i.e., 7%) accrued on a day-to-day basis from the day after the first interest payment date after the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds on the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds outstanding and payable by the Company semi-annually in arrears on the dates falling upon the expiry of six months and one year after the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds and on the anniversary(ies) of such dates for each year thereafter up to and including the last interest payment date before the date of the Third Addendum.

(ii) After the Third Amendments:

$$\begin{array}{rclclcl}
 \text{Aggregate Outstanding} & & & \text{Interest period of 1,094 days} & & \\
 \text{Principal Amount} & \times & 12\% & \times & \text{covering the period from} & \\ \text{(i.e., HK$11,850,000)} & & & & \text{27 December 2023}^{(3)} \text{ to} & \\
 & & & & \text{the New Maturity Date}^{(4)} & = \text{HK$4,262,104} \\
 & & & & \hline
 & & & & \text{365 days} &
 \end{array}$$

The accrued interest after the Third Amendments represents accrued interest amount of the outstanding principal amount with adjusted interest rate (i.e., 12%) accrued on a day-to-day basis from the day after the last interest payment date before the date of the Third Addendum on the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds outstanding and payable by the Company semi-annually in arrears on the anniversary(ies) of the dates falling upon the expiry of six months and one year after the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds for each year thereafter up to and including New Maturity Date.

Total outstanding accrued interest until the New Maturity Date:

$$(i) + (ii) = \text{HK$6,746,059}$$

The conversion shares from the total outstanding accrued interest until the New Maturity Date:

$$\begin{array}{rcl}
 = & \frac{\text{The total outstanding accrued interest until the New Maturity Date}}{\text{The Conversion Price}} & \\
 = & \frac{\text{HK$6,746,059}}{\text{HK$0.088}} & \\
 = & 76,659,761 \text{ Shares} &

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Accrued Default Interest

(iii) First default period:

First aggregate overdue accrued interest =

$$\begin{array}{r} \text{Aggregate Outstanding} \\ \text{Principal Amount} \\ \text{(i.e., HK$11,850,000)} \end{array} \times 7\% \times \frac{\text{Interest period of 910 days} \\ \text{covering the period from} \\ \text{29 December 2020}^{(1)} \text{ to} \\ \text{26 June 2023}^{(5)}}{365 \text{ days}} = \text{HK$2,068,068}$$

Accrued Default Interest of the first default period =

$$\begin{array}{r} \text{First aggregate overdue} \\ \text{accrued interest as of} \\ \text{26 June 2023}^{(5)} \end{array} \times 20\% \times \frac{\text{Interest period of 1,098 days} \\ \text{covering the period from} \\ \text{23 December 2023}^{(6)} \text{ to} \\ \text{the New Maturity Date}^{(4)}}{365 \text{ days}} = \text{HK$1,244,241}$$

The accrued Default Interest of the first default period is calculated based on the overdue amount accrued on the Company when it failed to repay the outstanding principal and the outstanding accrued interest at the original interest rate (i.e., 7%) for the first time as of 26 June 2023, with default interest rate (i.e., 20%) from and including the date immediately after the existing maturity date of the Convertible Bonds to the actual payment date.

(iv) Second default period:

Second aggregate Overdue Accrued Interest =

13. The day after the first interest payment date after the date of the Fourth Addendum.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

14. The last day that the Convertible Bonds bear interest semi-annually during the second semiannual period (i.e., 27 June 2025 to 26 December 2025) as extended by the Proposed Fourth Amendments.
 15. The day after the second interest payment date after the date of the Fourth Addendum.
 16. The last day that the Convertible Bonds bear interest semi-annually during the third semiannual period (i.e., 27 December 2025 to 26 June 2026) as extended by the Proposed Fourth Amendments.
- * The above calculation is based on the assumption that there will be no further extensions and further events of default of the Convertible Bonds.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, an aggregate interest of the Convertible Bonds of approximately HK$420,000, which covered an interest period from the date on which the Convertible Bonds were issued (i.e., 26 June 2020) to 28 December 2020, had been repaid by the Company to the Bondholders.

As disclosed in the Company's interim report for the six months ended 30 September 2024, despite further improvement of the Covid-19 pandemic situation, there are still challenges in the PRC's economic recovery which may adversely affect tourism and accordingly the Group's business. Therefore, having considered (i) the Group has incurred continuous losses starting from the year ended 31 March 2019; (ii) the Group has recorded net current liabilities since 2022; and (iii) the full redemption of the Convertible Bonds would impose an immediate cash outflow of HK$16,359,188, comprising the Outstanding Principal Amount of HK$11,850,000, and the maximum aggregate outstanding accrued interest (including accrued and default interest of HK$4,473,349 up to the Existing Maturity Date, calculated in accordance with the formula under the paragraph headed "Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest and the Conversion Shares" as disclosed in the circular dated 21 February 2024). This substantial cash outflow would severely strain the Company's liquidity position, especially considering that as of 31 January 2025, the Group's cash and cash equivalents (excluding restricted cash) amounted to HK$896,780, representing only 5.48% of the total redemption obligation of HK$16,359,188, the Group has been unable to discharge its liabilities related to the repayment of the outstanding accrued interest on the Convertible Bonds to the Bondholders in accordance with the CB Terms and Conditions.

PRINCIPAL TERMS OF THE CONVERTIBLE BONDS IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE PROPOSED FOURTH AMENDMENTS UNDER THE FOURTH ADDENDUM

The CB Terms and Conditions (as amended by the Fourth Addendum) are summarised below:

Issuer:	The Company
Principal amount:	An aggregate principal amount of HK$11,850,000
Issue price:	100% of the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Maturity date: The date falling upon the expiry of six years and six months from the date on which the Convertible Bonds are issued, or if such date is not a Business Day, the immediate preceding Business Day (i.e., 24 December 2026)

Interest: The Convertible Bonds will bear interest from the date of issue at the rate of 7% per annum, and from the date immediately after the date falling upon the expiry of three years and six months from the date of issue at the rate of 12% per annum, accrued on a day-to-day basis on the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds outstanding, will be payable by the Company semi-annually in arrears on the dates falling upon the expiry of six months and one year after the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds and on the anniversary(ies) of such dates for each year thereafter up to and including the New Maturity Date, with the first payment to be made on the date falling six months after the date of its issue.

If the Company fails to pay the outstanding accrued interest on the aforesaid payment due date(s) when the accrued interest becomes payable, the Bondholder will be entitled to receive a Default Interest at the rate of 20% per annum (“Default Interest Rate”) on the overdue amount from and including such due date(s) (or, in respect of the outstanding accrued interest payable before the Existing Maturity Date, the date immediately after the Existing Maturity Date) to the actual payment date. If the Company fails to repay the outstanding principal on the New Maturity Date, the Bondholder will be entitled to receive a penalty interest at the Default Interest Rate on the overdue amount from and including the New Maturity Date to the actual payment date.

The interest of the Convertible Bonds (including Default Interest) shall be calculated on the basis of a 365-day year and on the actual number of days elapsed.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Conversion Price: HK$0.088 per Conversion Share, subject to the adjustment events below

Adjustment events: Pursuant to the CB Terms and Conditions, the Conversion Price shall from time to time be adjusted upon occurrence of the following events:

- (i) consolidation or subdivision of the Shares

The conversion price in force immediately prior thereto shall be adjusted by multiplying it by the former number of Shares and dividing the result by the revised number of Shares;

- (ii) issue of any Shares by way of capitalisation of profits or reserves (other than in lieu of a cash dividend)

The conversion price in force immediately prior to such issue shall be adjusted by multiplying it by the aggregate number of the Shares immediately before such issue and dividing the result by the sum of such aggregate number and the aggregate number of the Shares issued in such capitalisation;

- (iii) capital distribution to the Shareholders or a grant to the Shareholders of any rights to acquire for cash assets of the Group

The conversion price in force immediately prior to such distribution or grant shall be adjusted by multiplying it by the following fraction:

$$\frac{A - B}{A}$$

where:

A = the Market Price (as defined hereinafter) on the date on which the capital distribution or, as the case may be, the grant is publicly announced or (failing any such announcement) the date next preceding the date of the capital distribution or, as the case may be, of the grant; and

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

B = the fair market value on the day of such announcement or (as the case may require) the next preceding day, as determined in good faith by an approved merchant bank, of the portion of the capital distribution or of such rights which is attributable to one Share

- (iv) offer of any new Shares to the Shareholders for subscription by way of rights, or a grant to the Shareholders of any options or warrants to subscribe for new Shares, at a price which is less than 80% of the average closing price of the Share over the last five trading days before the date for determining the market price (“Market Price”) per Share

The conversion price shall be adjusted by multiplying the conversion price in force immediately before the date of the announcement of such offer or grant by a fraction of which the numerator is the number of Shares in issue immediately before the date of such announcement plus the number of Shares which the aggregate of the amount (if any) payable for the rights, options or warrants and of the amount payable for the total number of new Shares comprised therein would purchase at such Market Price and the denominator is the number of Shares in issue immediately before the date of such announcement plus the aggregate number of Shares offered for subscription or comprised in the options or warrants (such adjustment to become effective (if appropriate retroactively) from the commencement of the day next following the record date for the offer or grant);

- (v) (aa) issue of any securities convertible into or exchangeable for or carrying rights of subscription for new Shares wholly for cash, if in any case, the total effective consideration per Share receivable for such securities is less than 80% of the Market Price per Share.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The conversion price shall be adjusted by multiplying the conversion price in force immediately prior to the issue by a fraction of which the numerator is the number of Shares in issue immediately before the date of the issue plus the number of Shares which the total effective consideration receivable for the securities issued would purchase at such Market Price and the denominator is the number of Shares in issue immediately before the date of the issue plus the maximum number of Shares to be issued upon conversion or exchange of, or the exercise of the subscription rights conferred by such securities at the initial conversion or exchange rate or subscription price.

(bb) any rights of conversion, exchange or subscription attached to such securities are modified so that the said total effective consideration per Share receivable for such securities is less than 80% of the Market Price per Share.

The conversion price shall be adjusted by multiplying the conversion price in force immediately prior to such modification by a fraction of which the numerator is the number of Shares in issue immediately before the date of such modification plus the number of Shares which the total effective consideration receivable for the securities issued at the modified conversion or exchange price would purchase at such Market Price and of which the denominator is the number of Shares in issue immediately before such date of modification plus the maximum number of Shares to be issued upon conversion or exchange of or the exercise of the subscription rights conferred by such securities at the modified conversion or exchange rate or subscription price;

(vi) issue of any Shares wholly for cash at a price per Share which is less than 80% of the Market Price per Share

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The conversion price shall be adjusted by multiplying the conversion price in force immediately before the date of such announcement by a fraction of which the numerator is the number of Shares in issue immediately before the date of such announcement plus the number of Shares which the aggregate amount payable for the issue would purchase at such Market Price and the denominator is the number of Shares in issue immediately before the date of such announcement plus the number of Shares so issued; and

- (vii) issue of any Shares for acquisition of asset at a total effective consideration per Share which is less than 80% of the Market Price per Share

The conversion price in force immediately before the issue shall be adjusted by multiplying it by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the total effective consideration per Share and the denominator shall be the Market Price.

Conversion Shares:

Upon the implementation of the Proposed Fourth Amendments, and assuming no interest of the Convertible Bonds is settled or paid to the Bondholders between the Latest Practicable Date and the New Maturity Date while excluding any Default Interest accrued after the New Maturity Date, the maximum number of Shares that may be allotted and issued upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds at the Conversion Price is 240,412,840 Shares, representing:

- (i) approximately 12.47% of the total issued share capital of the Company as at the Latest Practicable Date; and
- (ii) approximately 11.09% of the total issued share capital following the allotment and issuance of the Conversion Shares, assuming there are no other changes to the Company's issued share capital between the Latest Practicable Date and the full conversion of the Convertible Bonds.

The Conversion Shares shall be allotted and issued by the Company in board lots (if applicable) in the name of the Bondholder or as it may direct with effect from Conversion Date and shall be delivered to such Bondholder within fourteen Business Days of the Conversion Date. Conversion prerequisites: No Conversion Rights may be exercised by a Bondholder unless such Bondholder confirms and/or provides evidence that upon exercise of the Convertible Rights:

- (iv) a discount of approximately 39.39% to the average closing price of HK$0.1452 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the last ten consecutive trading days up to and including the date of the Fourth Addendum; and
- (v) a theoretical dilution effect (as defined under Rule 10.44A of the GEM Listing Rules) represented by a discount of approximately 4.85%, which is calculated based on the theoretical diluted price of approximately HK$0.1473 per Share (as defined under Rule 10.44A of the GEM Listing Rules, taking account the higher of (i) the closing price of the Shares as quoted on the Stock Exchange on the date of the Fourth Addendum of HK$0.15 per Share; and (ii) the average of the closing prices of the Shares as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the five (5) previous consecutive trading days prior to the date of the Fourth Addendum of approximately HK$0.1548 per Share).

To assess the fairness and reasonableness of the Conversion Price, the Directors have considered the closing prices of the Shares traded on the Stock Exchange and the trading volume of the Shares in the past three months prior to and including the date of the Fourth Addendum (the “Review Period”) as a benchmark to reflect the prevailing market conditions and recent market sentiment.

During the Review Period, the Shares were traded on the Stock Exchange with closing prices ranging from HK$0.085 per Share to HK$0.16 per Share, with an average closing price of the Shares during the Review Period of approximately HK$0.116 per Share. The Directors considered that despite the Conversion Price of HK$0.088 per Conversion Share represents a discount of approximately 24.14% to the average closing price of the Shares during the Review Period, (i) the closing price of the Share fluctuated between HK$0.085 to HK$0.111 until a sharply increase from HK$0.113 on 12 December 2024 to HK$0.160 on 19 December 2024. After the sharp increase of closing price of the Shares, it was in a decreasing trend at the end of the Review Period. The Directors are not aware of any specific reasons for the aforesaid closing price fluctuation of the Shares; and (ii) the Conversion Price represents a significant premium over the consolidated unaudited net asset value of the Company attributable to the Shareholders as at 30 September 2024 of approximately HK$0.0041 per Share.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Furthermore, the Directors have also reviewed the trading volume of the Shares during the Review Period when assessing the fairness and reasonableness of the Conversion Price. The following table sets out, among others, (i) the average daily trading volume of the Shares during the Review Period; and (ii) the percentage of the average daily trading volume of the Shares in proportion to the total number of Shares in issue as at the end of the month/period:

Trading volume of the Shares during the Review Period

Month/Period	Total trading Volume	Number of trading days	Average daily trading volume of the Shares	Average daily trading volume as a percentage of the total number of Shares in issue as at the end of the month/period
30 September 2024	50,000	1	50,000	0.0026%
October 2024	8,212,805	21	391,086	0.0206%
November 2024	950,000	21	45,238	0.0024%
From 1 December 2024 to 30 December 2024	3,810,000	19	200,526	0.0106%

As illustrated in the above table, the trading volume of the Shares was relatively thin during the Review Period, with an average daily trading volume of the Shares for the respective month/period ranging from 45,238 Shares to 391,086 Shares, representing 0.0024% trading volume and approximately 0.0206% of the Company's total number of Shares in issue as at the end of the relevant month/period, respectively. The average daily trading volume of the Share was very thin during the Review Period, with below 0.05% for the average daily trading volume over the total number of issued Shares.

Based on the above results, the Directors consider that the trading liquidity of the Shares during the Review Period were relatively thin.

In light of the observed thin liquidity of the Shares, the Bondholders have expressed concern regarding the potential for significant volatility in Share prices. This volatility introduces an element of uncertainty in pricing, making it challenging for the Bondholders to accurately assess the fair value of the Shares. As a result, the Bondholders anticipate a higher return to offset this increased risk.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The Company acknowledges that significant volatility makes it challenging to determine the fair value of the Shares accurately and may result in significant adjustments when agreeing on the Conversion Price. Therefore, before deciding on a substantial discount for the Conversion Price, the Directors have taken several relevant factors into account:

- (i) the Group is currently facing ongoing financial losses, which considerably impact its overall financial position. This situation may negatively influence the determination of the Conversion Price;
- (ii) in alignment with the Group's development plan, allocating more cash flow toward the existing business operations may become necessary, potentially resulting in an extended payback period. Consequently, to reduce the financial burden of the Group, the Group seeks to encourage Bondholders to consider exercising their conversion rights rather than pursuing cash repayment;
- (iii) the limited liquidity of the Shares observed during the Review Period indicates a potential for significant discounts to the Conversion Price. This scenario may arise due to the inherent volatility associated with the Shares as mentioned above; and
- (iv) additional information provided in the section titled "REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE PROPOSED FOURTH AMENDMENTS" further support the reasoning behind offering a considerable discount to the Bondholders.

Considering these factors, the Directors believe that offering a significant discount is justifiable and appropriate, given the circumstances.

Besides, the Directors noted that the Conversion Price represents a significant premium over the consolidated unaudited net asset value of the Company attributable to the Shareholders as at 30 September 2024 of approximately HK$0.0041 per Share. Therefore, the Directors are of the view that the Conversion Price is fair and reasonable and is in the interest of the Company and the Independent Shareholders as a whole.

SPECIFIC MANDATE TO ALLOT AND ISSUE THE CONVERSION SHARES

As at the Latest Practicable Date, none of the Convertible Bonds has been, upon exercise of any Conversion Rights attaching thereto, converted into Shares.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, the total principal amount of HK$11,850,000 and the total accrued interest of approximately HK$4,256,585 of the Convertible Bonds remain outstanding. Assuming that no interest on the Convertible Bonds is settled or paid to the Bondholders between the Latest Practicable Date and the New Maturity Date, the maximum total accrued interest of the Convertible Bonds, which includes any accrued Default Interest, is expected to be HK$9,306,330 as at the New Maturity Date.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

As of the Latest Practicable Date, the Company has 1,927,716,667 Shares in issue. Upon the implementation of the Proposed Fourth Amendments, and assuming no interest of the Convertible Bonds is settled or paid to the Bondholders between the Latest Practicable Date and the New Maturity Date while excluding any Default Interest accrued after the New Maturity Date, the maximum number of Shares that may be allotted and issued upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds at the Conversion Price is 240,412,840 Shares, representing approximately 12.47% of the total issued share capital of the Company as at the Latest Practicable Date and approximately 11.09% of the total issued share capital following the allotment and issuance of the Conversion Shares, assuming there are no other changes to the Company's issued share capital between the Latest Practicable Date and the full conversion of the Convertible Bonds.

The Company will seek the grant of the Specific Mandate from the Shareholders at the EGM to be convened to authorise the Board to allot and issue the Conversion Shares upon exercise of the Conversion Rights by the Bondholders (as amended by the Fourth Addendum). The allotment and issue of the Conversion Shares is subject to the Shareholders' approval at the EGM.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE PROPOSED FOURTH AMENDMENTS

The Convertible Bonds (as amended by the Fourth Amendments under the Fourth Addendum) matured on 24 December 2024. As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Convertible Bonds have not been redeemed or converted in whole or in part. If the Company is to redeem the Convertible Bonds in full on the Latest Practicable Date, the expected cash outflow of the Company in this regard will amount to approximately HK$16,872,441. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the accrued and default interest of HK$4,509,188, due by the date of the Fourth Addendum, remains unsettled. Since the issuance of the Convertible Bonds, the Company has been focused on generating cash flow through its operations and allocating proceeds from fundraising efforts to address this outstanding interest. However, cash flow generated from operational activities has been allocated for working capital to ensure prudent management. Additionally, funds raised through fundraising activities, such as the placement of new shares and the issuance of convertible bonds, have been prioritised for immediate repayment obligations to the Group's service providers thereby safeguarding the continuity of its core business operations. Additionally, the management team is actively engaged in discussions with Metagate and Mr. Choy, who have expressed their willingness to defer repayment demands and explore further refinancing options. In light of these efforts, the Group continues to pursue all avenues to settle the accrued and default interest.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Having considered the direct and immediate negative impact of full redemption of the Convertible Bonds (if carried out according to the CB Terms and Conditions (as amended by the Fourth Addendum)) on the Company's liquidity and financial position, the Company has been negotiating with the Bondholders to explore possible solutions, including but not limited to the potential extension of the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds and the potential issuance of new debt securities. On 20 December 2024, the Company was notified of the Bondholders' intention to incorporate the Proposed Fourth Amendments into the CB Terms and Conditions. In this regard, the Directors believe that the Proposed Fourth Amendments would allow the Group to continue to refinance its debts under the Convertible Bonds on normal commercial terms and enable the Company to retain flexibility in the deployment of its funds for general working capital, which is of paramount importance to the Company's operations amidst the challenging market environment.

In order to further assess the Proposed Fourth Amendments, the Directors have considered the following factors:

- (i) comparing to settling the Convertible Bonds, the extension of the maturity date for the Convertible Bonds allows the Group to defer a significant cash outflow, affording it a reasonable timeframe to improve its financial performance and net current liabilities position. Furthermore, the extension grants the Group the flexibility to deploy its financial resources towards operational needs and business development, while ensuring sufficient time for the Company to arrange funding, including from internal sources or equity fundraising activities, to meet its redemption obligations under the terms of the Convertible Bonds.

In addition, deferring interest payments can greatly alleviate the Company's short-term cash flow pressures, allowing it to prioritise limited funds to support core business operations, repay other urgent debts, or invest in key growth areas;

- (ii) extending the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds, rather than settling them, allows accrued interest to be converted into the Shares. According to the CB Terms and Conditions, the Bondholders can convert any outstanding accrued interest into Conversion Shares at any time during the Conversion Period. This mechanism eliminates cash outflows for interest payments, preserving liquidity for essential operations. It also strengthens the financial position by reducing interest-bearing liabilities and aligns the interests of the Bondholders with the Shareholders, fostering long-term collaboration;

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

- (iii) after carefully assessing several key factors, including (a) the prevailing market price, (b) the recent trading volume of the Shares, and (c) the recovery of the Group's business operations after COVID-19, which affects the timeline for generating sufficient cash flow for debt repayment, the Group has made the strategic decision to encourage Bondholders to convert their Convertible Bonds into Shares. To facilitate this conversion, the Group compromised to offer a substantial discount of over 40% of the benchmark prices (i.e. higher of the closing price on the date of the Fourth Addendum and the average closing price in the 5 trading days immediately prior to the date of the Fourth Addendum). This offer presents Bondholders with a constructive opportunity to convert their debt into equity, thereby alleviating the financial pressures faced by the Group (for details, please refer to the sub-section headed "The Conversion Price" of this circular); and
- (iv) the Company has maintained a stable relationship with the Bondholders and the parties have aligned mutual expectations and understanding on the redemption and/or conversion of the Convertible Bonds. After discussions with the Bondholders, it was determined that they prefer to support the Company through these challenges rather than demand immediate repayment. This decision aligns with the Bondholders' long-term interests.

In contrast, borrowing from Independent Third Party licensed money lenders requires the Company to invest additional time and administrative costs in negotiating and finalising the terms and typically involves lower flexibility in terms of repayment, rendering it a less preferable alternative to the Proposed Fourth Amendments.

As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Company has no intention to carry out any further fund-raising activity(ies) solely for the purpose of catering for the redemption of the Convertible Bonds and the Proposed Fourth Amendments and will, as and when appropriate, keep the Shareholders and potential investors informed of any development in compliance with the GEM Listing Rules. As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Company has also no intention to repay the outstanding Accrued Interest given that the Proposed Fourth Amendments is intended to enable the Company to defer significant cash outflow and preserve the resilience and stability of the Company's cash position for the benefit of the Company's future operations, and outright repayment of the outstanding Accrued Interest by utilising the Group's cash reserves would place undue financial burden on the Group in terms of cash flow, indebtedness and liquidity position and may jeopardise the Company's capability to maintain its operations. The repayment of outstanding Accrued Interest in cash could lead to a tighter liquidity position, potentially affecting the Group's ability to meet other financial obligations. This situation might necessitate taking on additional debt, as the Group may need to seek further financing to maintain operational continuity, which would increase its overall financial burden. Moreover, this could lead to a higher leverage ratio, negatively impacting its financial position and potentially affecting future borrowing capacity and terms.

As such, the Directors are of the view that extending the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds is more effective in alleviating the financial burden of the Company as compared to settling the Convertible Bonds.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

While the Directors considered that the Proposed Fourth Amendments would help reserve cash resources of the Group and provide flexibility for the Group in utilising its cash resources, the Directors have, apart from the 2024 Subscriptions, the 2024 Placing, and the 2025 Subscription, also considered and explored possibility of conducting other fund-raising alternatives including (i) debt financing; and (ii) other equity fund raising methods such as placing under general and/or specific mandates, rights issue and open offer for further fund raising. The Directors were, however, of the view that debt financing may (i) involve lengthy due diligence procedures with the debt application approval being usually subject to the Group's financial position and prevailing market conditions. The estimated time for processing loan applications exceeds three months, and there is no certainty regarding their approval. Furthermore, should the application be successful, the annual interest rate may be 24%, and the default interest rate may be 48%, both exceeding those of the Convertible Bonds, particularly with additional collateral; and (ii) impose additional interest burden on the Group which will, in turn, worsen the Group's financial position. For placing under general and/or specific mandates, since placing would inevitably lead to immediate dilution in the shareholding interest of the existing Shareholders, the Directors considered that this is not the most suitable option for current purpose. For other alternative equity fund-raising methods such as rights issue and open offer, the Directors considered that such methods usually require a relatively longer time period to complete due to relatively more stringent documentary requirements for preemptive issues such as preparation of listing document, application forms, registration requirements for a listing document and negotiation with the underwriter on the terms and conditions of the underwriting agreement. As of the Latest Practicable Date, save as disclosed above, the Company has not considered any other fundraising method.

The Directors further considered that:

- (i) more professional parties would be involved in other equity fund raising methods such as rights issue and open offer, such as underwriters, legal advisers to the Company or other relevant parties, auditors, share registrar and financial printer, it is therefore expected that additional cost (including but not limited to underwriting commission of the proceeds raised as well as documentation, printing and professional fees) will be inevitably incurred, which may, in turn, cause an adverse impact on the financial condition of the Group;
- (ii) third party lenders would generally impose more stringent conditions (such as requiring charge of assets and/or other securities and guarantees to be provided by the Directors and/or controlling shareholders of the Company) on the loans, as well as administrative expenses and fees charged, which may increase the Group's existing cost of borrowings and affect the Group's flexibility in utilising its resources, and hence worsen the Group's liabilities position and its gearing ratio; and
- (iii) no additional due diligence procedures nor debt application approval is required by the Proposed Fourth Amendments as the Proposed Fourth Amendments were initiated and have been agreed by all the Bondholders, which enables the Group to retain its cash resources in a relatively expedient manner.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

In view of the foregoing, the Directors considered that the Proposed Fourth Amendments are justifiable given that the Proposed Fourth Amendments are less costly and more efficient to retain cash resources of the Group as the Group's working capital as compared to other fundraising methods as mentioned above.

The Company intends to proceed with settling the Convertible Bonds in the event that the Proposed Fourth Amendments do not take effect. In light of this, the following measures will be considered:

- (i) the Group will keep actively negotiating and discussing with the Bondholders to consider future settlement/schedule plan and actively identifying any other possible financing options and debt restructuring exercises as and when appropriate;
- (ii) the Group is expected to consider various fundraising activities, including equity financing. This involves issuing new shares, introducing strategic investors, or conducting private placements, with a preference for options that minimise the dilution effect on existing shareholders; and
- (iii) the Group continues to improve the operating efficiency by implementing measures to tighten cost controls over various operating expenses in order to enhance its profitability and to improve the cash flow from its operation in future.

Taking into account of the above factors, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) believe the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including but not limited to the Proposed Fourth Amendments) and the grant of the Specific Mandate to allot and issue the Conversion Shares upon exercise of the Conversion Rights by the Bondholders are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the Independent Shareholders as a whole.

EFFECT ON THE SHAREHOLDING STRUCTURE OF THE COMPANY

As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Company has 1,927,716,667 Shares in issue, and none of the conversion rights attaching to the Convertible Bonds has been exercised by the holders of the Convertible Bonds and therefore none of the Convertible Bonds has been converted into Shares.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The following table illustrates the shareholding structure of the Company (i) as at the Latest Practicable Date; (ii) upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds (assuming that there will be no other change to the total issued share capital of the Company between the Latest Practicable Date and upon the full conversion of the Convertible Bonds and that no interest of the Convertible Bonds would be settled and paid to the Bondholders between the Latest Practicable Date and the New Maturity Date without taking into account any Default Interest accrued after the New Maturity Date) and none of the 2024 Convertible Bonds has been converted into the Shares in accordance with its terms thereof (“Scenario 1”); (iii) upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds and the 2024 Convertible Bonds (assuming that there will be no other change to the total issued share capital of the Company between the Latest Practicable Date and upon the full conversion of the Convertible Bonds and that no interest of the Convertible Bonds would be settled and paid to the Bondholders and the Subscribers between the Latest Practicable Date and the New Maturity Date without taking into account any Default Interest accrued after the New Maturity Date) (“Scenario 2”); and (iv) upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds, the 2024 Convertible Bonds and the 2025 Convertible Bonds (assuming that there will be no other change to the total issued share capital of the Company between the Latest Practicable Date and upon the full conversion of the Convertible Bonds and that no interest of the Convertible Bonds would be settled and paid to the Bondholders and the Subscribers between the Latest Practicable Date and the New Maturity Date without taking into account any Default Interest accrued after the New Maturity Date and the 2025 Subscription being effective) (“Scenario 3”):

Pursuant to Rule 17.47(4) of the GEM Listing Rules, any vote of the Shareholders at a general meeting must be taken by poll except where the chairman of such general meeting, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands. Therefore, the resolution put to the vote at the EGM shall be taken by poll.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

28 March 2025

To the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders of Oriental Payment Group Holdings Limited

Dear Sirs,

CONNECTED TRANSACTION IN RELATION TO THE PROPOSED FOURTH AMENDMENTS TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE CONVERTIBLE BONDS

A. INTRODUCTION

We refer to our appointment as the Independent Financial Adviser to advise the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders in respect of the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including but not limited to the Proposed Fourth Amendments), details of which are set out in the letter from the Board (the “Letter from the Board”) contained in the circular dated 28 March 2025 issued by the Company to the Shareholders (the “Circular”), of which this letter forms part. Terms used herein shall have the same meanings as defined in the Circular unless the context requires otherwise.

Reference is made to the Letter from the Board, pursuant to the terms of the Fourth Addendum, subject to the fulfilment of the conditions precedent (the “Conditions Precedent”), it is agreed between the Company and the Bondholders that the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds shall be further extended from “the date falling upon the expiry of four years and six months from the date on which the Convertible Bonds are issued or if such date is not a Business Day, the immediate preceding Business Day” (which is 24 December 2024) to “the date falling upon the expiry of six years and six months from the date on which the Convertible Bonds are issued, or if such date is not a Business Day, the immediate preceding Business Day” (which is 24 December 2026 (the “New Maturity Date”)).

Save for the Proposed Fourth Amendments, all other terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds shall remain unchanged, and the outstanding Convertible Bonds shall remain in full force, validity, and effect in accordance with the terms set out therein.

GEM Listing Rules Implications

Pursuant to Rule 34.05 of the GEM Listing Rules, any alterations in the terms of convertible debt securities after issue must be approved by the Stock Exchange, except where the alterations take effect automatically under the existing terms of such convertible debt securities.

Given that the Proposed Fourth Amendments are alterations to terms of the Convertible Bonds which do not take effect automatically thereunder, the Company will apply to the Stock Exchange for its approval of the Proposed Fourth Amendments pursuant to the requirements under Rule 34.05 of the GEM Listing Rules.

Further, as at the Latest Practicable Date, Metagate is a substantial shareholder of the Company directly interested in 309,250,000 Shares, representing approximately 16.04% of the total issued share capital of the Company as at the Latest Practicable Date and is therefore a connected person of the Company under the GEM Listing Rules. Also, Mr. Choy, who is the director and the ultimate sole shareholder of Metagate, is an associate of Metagate under the GEM Listing Rules and hence a connected person of the Company under the GEM Listing Rules. Therefore, the Proposed Fourth Amendments to the CB Terms and Conditions in relation to the Convertible Bonds held by Metagate and Mr. Choy would constitute a connected transaction of the Company under Chapter 20 of the GEM Listing Rules, which is subject to the reporting, announcement and Independent Shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 20 of the GEM Listing Rules. Accordingly, Metagate and Mr. Choy are required under the GEM Listing Rules to abstain from voting on the relevant resolution at the EGM.

Save as disclosed above, to the best knowledge, information and belief of the Directors after having made all reasonable enquiries as at the Latest Practicable Date, no Shareholder has a material interest in the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including but not limited to the Proposed Fourth Amendments) and the grant of the Specific Mandate to allot and issue the Conversion Shares upon exercise of the Conversion Rights by the Bondholders, and therefore no Shareholder (or his/her/its associates) is required to abstain from voting at the EGM in relation to the resolution to be proposed for approving the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including but not limited to the Proposed Fourth Amendments), the grant of the Specific Mandate to allot and issue the Conversion Shares upon exercise of the Conversion Rights by the Bondholders and other related matters at the EGM.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

The Group recorded revenue for the year ended 31 March 2024 in the amount of approximately HK$31.7 million, representing an increase of approximately 278.5% as compared to that for the year ended 31 March 2023 in the amount of approximately HK$8.4 million. According to the Annual Report 2024, such increase was mainly due to the increase in the merchant discount rate (“MDR”) income by approximately HK$22.4 million as the policies of the PRC and Hong Kong had been relieved in relation to the COVID-19 pandemic and the reopening of the mainland-Hong Kong border in January 2023. The gross profit for the year ended 31 March 2024 in the amount of approximately HK$9.2 million, representing an increase of approximately 1,330.9% as compared to that for the year ended 31 March 2023 in amount of approximately HK$644,000. Such increase was mainly due to the increase in the MDR income as mentioned in above. The Group recorded a loss for the year ended 31 March 2024 in the amount of approximately HK$37.2 million, representing an increase of approximately 15.3% as compared to a loss for the year ended 31 March 2023 in the amount of approximately HK$32.2 million. Such increase in loss was mainly attributable from the net effect of (i) the increase in revenue and gross profit, selling and distribution costs and general administrative expenses, (ii) the decrease in other income and finance costs, (iii) the gain on disposal of the subsidiaries, (iv) the absence of modification and extinguishment of convertible bonds, and (v) the loss on extinguishment of financial liabilities for the year ended 31 March 2024.

The Group’s audited net current liabilities, total assets and total liabilities as at 31 March 2024 amounted to approximately HK$21.8 million, HK$112.7 million and HK$89.4 million, respectively. The Group’s audited net assets amounted to approximately HK$23.3 million as at 31 March 2024, representing a decrease of approximately 55.5% as compared to that of approximately HK$52.4 million as at 31 March 2023. Such decrease was mainly due to (i) increase in trade payables by approximately HK$38.9 million which offset by the increase in trade receivables by approximately HK$37.7 million; and (ii) decrease in other receivables and property, plant and equipment by approximately HK$17.6 million and HK$10.1 million, respectively. The gearing ratio, which was calculated by dividing total other long-term liabilities and convertible bonds by total equity, increased from approximately 33.8% as at 31 March 2023 to approximately 88.3% as at 31 March 2024. Such increase was mainly due to the decrease in the Group’s net assets mentioned in above.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

The Group recorded revenue for the six months ended 30 September 2024 in the amount of approximately HK$19.5 million, representing an increase of approximately 84.8% as compared to that for the six months ended 30 September 2023 in the amount of approximately HK$10.5 million. According to the Interim Report 2024, such increase was mainly due to the increase in the MDR income by approximately HK$8.8 million as the policies of the PRC and Hong Kong had been relieved in relation to the COVID-19 pandemic and the reopening of the mainland-Hong Kong border in January 2023. Some Chinese tourists have resumed travelling to Thailand and the spending of Chinese tourists and the transaction volume via UnionPay processed by the Group have gradually increased since January 2023. The gross profit for the six months ended 30 September 2024 in the amount of approximately HK$4.7 million, representing an increase of approximately 85.3% as compared to that for the six months ended 30 September 2023 in amount of approximately HK$2.5 million. Such increase was mainly due to the increase in revenue as mentioned in above. The Group recorded a loss for the six months ended 30 September 2024 in the amount of approximately HK$15.9 million as compared to a loss for the six months ended 30 September 2023 in the amount of approximately HK$18.1 million. Such decrease in loss was mainly because of the net effect of (i) the increase in revenue and gross profit, selling and distribution costs, loss on extinguishment of convertible bonds and finance costs, and (ii) the decrease in other income and general administrative expenses, for the six months ended 30 September 2024.

The Group's unaudited net current liabilities, total assets and total liabilities as at 30 September 2024 amounted to approximately HK$30.1 million, HK$64.3 million and HK$56.6 million, respectively. The Group's audited net assets amounted to approximately HK$7.7 million as at 30 September 2024, representing a decrease of approximately 67.0% as compared to that of approximately HK$23.3 million as at 31 March 2024. Such decrease was mainly due to (i) decrease in property, plant and equipment by approximately HK$4.7 million; and (ii) increase in other payables and liability component of convertible bonds by approximately HK$3.6 million and HK$4.3 million, respectively. The gearing ratio, which was calculated by dividing total other long-term liabilities and convertible bonds by total equity, increased from approximately 88.3% as at 31 March 2024 to approximately 331.3% as at 30 September 2024. Such increase was mainly due to increase in liability component of convertible bonds by approximately HK$4.3 million and decrease in the Group's net assets mentioned in above.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

2. Reasons for and benefits of the Proposed Fourth Amendments

As stated in the Letter from the Board, The Convertible Bonds (as amended by the Fourth Amendments under the Fourth Addendum) matured on 24 December 2024. As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Convertible Bonds have not been redeemed or converted in whole or in part. If the Company is to redeem the Convertible Bonds in full on the Latest Practicable Date, the expected cash outflow of the Company in this regard will amount to approximately HK$16,872,441. As of the Latest Practicable Date, the accrued and default interest of HK$4,509,188, due by the date of the Fourth Addendum, remains unsettled. Since the issuance of the Convertible Bonds, the Company has been focused on generating cash flow through its operations and allocating proceeds from fundraising efforts to address this outstanding interest. However, cash flow generated from operational activities has been allocated for working capital to ensure prudent management. Additionally, funds raised through fundraising activities, such as the placement of new shares and the issuance of convertible bonds, have been prioritised for immediate repayment obligations to the Group's service providers thereby safeguarding the continuity of its core business operations. Additionally, the management team is actively engaged in discussions with Metagate and Mr. Choy, who have expressed their willingness to defer repayment demands and explore further refinancing options.

Having considered the direct and immediate negative impact of full redemption of the Convertible Bonds (if carried out according to the CB Terms and Conditions (as amended by the Fourth Addendum)) on the Company's liquidity and financial position, the Company has been negotiating with the Bondholders to explore possible solutions, including but not limited to the potential extension of the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds and the potential issuance of new debt securities. On 20 December 2024, the Company was notified of the Bondholders' intention to incorporate the Proposed Fourth Amendments into the CB Terms and Conditions. In this regard, the Directors believe that the Proposed Fourth Amendments would allow the Group to continue to refinance its debts under the Convertible Bonds on normal commercial terms and enable the Company to retain flexibility in the deployment of its funds for general working capital, which is of paramount importance to the Company's operations amidst the challenging market environment.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

In order to further assess the Proposed Fourth Amendments, the Directors have considered the following factors:

- (i) comparing to settling the Convertible Bonds, the extension of the maturity date for the Convertible Bonds allows the Group to defer a significant cash outflow, affording it a reasonable timeframe to improve its financial performance and net current liabilities position. Furthermore, the extension grants the Group the flexibility to deploy its financial resources towards operational needs and business development, while ensuring sufficient time for the Company to arrange funding, including from internal sources or equity fundraising activities, to meet its redemption obligations under the terms of the Convertible Bonds.

In addition, deferring interest payments can greatly alleviate the Company's short-term cash flow pressures, allowing it to prioritise limited funds to support core business operations, repay other urgent debts, or invest in key growth areas.

- (ii) extending the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds, rather than settling them, allows accrued interest to be converted into the Shares. According to the CB Terms and Conditions, the Bondholders can convert any outstanding accrued interest into Conversion Shares at any time during the Conversion Period. This mechanism eliminates cash outflows for interest payments, preserving liquidity for essential operations. It also strengthens the financial position by reducing interest-bearing liabilities and aligns the interests of the Bondholders with the Shareholders, fostering long-term collaboration;
- (iii) after carefully assessing several key factors, including (a) the prevailing market price, (b) the recent trading volume of the Shares, and (c) the recovery of the Group's business operations after COVID-19, which affects the timeline for generating sufficient cash flow for debt repayment, the Group has made the strategic decision to encourage Bondholders to convert their Convertible Bonds into Shares. To facilitate this conversion, the Group compromised to offer a substantial discount of over 40% of the benchmark prices (i.e. higher of the closing price on the date of the Fourth Addendum and the average closing price in the 5 trading days immediately prior to the date of the Fourth Addendum). This offer presents Bondholders with a constructive opportunity to convert their debt into equity, thereby alleviating the financial pressures faced by the Group (for details, please refer to the sub-section headed "The Conversion Price" of this circular); and

- (iv) the Company has maintained a stable relationship with the Bondholders and the parties have aligned mutual expectations and understanding on the redemption and/or conversion of the Convertible Bonds. After discussions with the Bondholders, it was determined that they prefer to support the Company through these challenges rather than demand immediate repayment. This decision aligns with the Bondholders' long-term interests.

In contrast, borrowing from Independent Third Party licensed money lenders requires the Company to invest additional time and administrative costs in negotiating and finalising the terms and typically involves lower flexibility in terms of repayment, rendering it a less preferable alternative to the Proposed Fourth Amendments.

As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Company has no intention to carry out any further fund-raising activity(ies) solely for the purpose of catering for the redemption of the Convertible Bonds and the Proposed Fourth Amendments and will, as and when appropriate, keep the Shareholders and potential investors informed of any development in compliance with the GEM Listing Rules. As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Company has also no intention to repay the outstanding Accrued Interest given that the Proposed Fourth Amendments is intended to enable the Company to defer significant cash outflow and preserve the resilience and stability of the Company's cash position for the benefit of the Company's future operations, and outright repayment of the outstanding Accrued Interest by utilising the Group's cash reserves would place undue financial burden on the Group in terms of cash flow, indebtedness and liquidity position and may jeopardise the Company's capability to maintain its operations. The repayment of outstanding Accrued Interest in cash could lead to a tighter liquidity position, potentially affecting the Group's ability to meet other financial obligations. This situation might necessitate taking on additional debt, as the Group may need to seek further financing to maintain operational continuity, which would increase its overall financial burden. Moreover, this could lead to a higher leverage ratio, negatively impacting its financial position and potentially affecting future borrowing capacity and terms.

As such, the Directors are of the view that extending the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds is more effective in alleviating the financial burden of the Company as compared to settling the Convertible Bonds.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

While the Directors considered that the Proposed Fourth Amendments would help reserve cash resources of the Group and provide flexibility for the Group in utilising its cash resources, the Directors have, apart from the 2024 Subscriptions, the 2024 Placing and the 2025 Subscription, also considered and explored possibility of conducting other fund-raising alternatives including (i) debt financing; and (ii) other equity fund raising methods such as placing under general and/or specific mandates, rights issue and open offer for further fund raising. The Directors were, however, of the view that debt financing may (i) involve lengthy due diligence procedures with the debt application approval being usually subject to the Group's financial position and prevailing market conditions. The estimated time for processing loan applications exceeds three months, and there is no certainty regarding their approval. Furthermore, should the application be successful, the annual interest rate may be 24%, and the default interest rate may be 48%, both exceeding those of the Convertible Bonds, particularly with additional collateral; and (ii) impose additional interest burden on the Group which will, in turn, worsen the Group's financial position. For placing under general and/or specific mandates, since placing would inevitably lead to immediate dilution in the shareholding interest of the existing Shareholders without offering them the opportunity to participate in the enlarged capital base of the Company, which is not the intention of the Company, the Directors considered that this is not the most suitable option for current purpose. For other alternative equity fund-raising methods such as rights issue and open offer, the Directors considered that such methods usually require a relatively longer time period to complete due to relatively more stringent documentary requirements for pre-emptive issues such as preparation of listing document, application forms, registration requirements for a listing document and negotiation with the underwriter on the terms and conditions of the underwriting agreement. As of the Latest Practicable Date, save as disclosed above, the Company has not considered any other fundraising method.

The Directors further considered that:

- (i) more professional parties would be involved in other equity fund raising methods such as rights issue and open offer, such as underwriters, legal advisers to the Company or other relevant parties, auditors, share registrar and financial printer, it is therefore expected that additional cost (including but not limited to underwriting commission of the proceeds raised as well as documentation, printing and professional fees) will be inevitably incurred, which may, in turn, cause an adverse impact on the financial condition of the Group;
- (ii) third party lenders would generally impose more stringent conditions (such as requiring charge of assets and/or other securities and guarantees to be provided by the Directors and/or controlling shareholders of the Company) on the loans, as well as administrative expenses and fees charged, which may increase the Group's existing cost of borrowings and affect the Group's flexibility in utilising its resources, and hence worsen the Group's liabilities position and its gearing ratio; and

- (iii) no additional due diligence procedures nor debt application approval is required by the Proposed Fourth Amendments as the Proposed Fourth Amendments were initiated and have been agreed by all the Bondholders, which enables the Group to retain its cash resources in a relatively expedient manner.

In view of the foregoing, the Directors considered that the Proposed Fourth Amendments are justifiable given that the Proposed Fourth Amendments are less costly and more efficient to retain cash resources of the Group as the Group's working capital as compared to other fundraising methods as mentioned above.

The Company intends to proceed with settling the Convertible Bonds in the event that the Proposed Fourth Amendments do not take effect. In light of this, the following measures will be considered:

- (i) the Group will keep actively negotiating and discussing with the Bondholders to consider future settlement/schedule plan and actively identifying any other possible financing options and debt restructuring exercises as and when appropriate;
- (ii) the Group is expected to consider various fundraising activities, including equity financing. This involves issuing new shares, introducing strategic investors, or conducting private placements, with a preference for options that minimise the dilution effect on existing shareholders; and
- (iii) the Group continues to improve the operating efficiency by implementing measures to tighten cost controls over various operating expenses in order to enhance its profitability and to improve the cash flow from its operation in future.

Taking into account of the above factors, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) believe the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including but not limited to the Proposed Fourth Amendments) and the grant of the Specific Mandate to allot and issue the Conversion Shares upon exercise of the Conversion Rights by the Bondholders are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the Independent Shareholders as a whole.

We have discussed with the Directors and were given to understand that the Company has considered other fundraising alternatives available to the Group before resolving to the Proposed Fourth Amendments, such as debt financing and other means of equity financing such as placing under general and/or specific mandates, rights issue or open offer.

In respect of debt financing, taking into consideration that (i) debt financing will bring about additional interest expenses for and increase the financial leverage of the Group; (ii) in light of the loss making position and current financial condition of the Group, it may be difficult, uncertain and time-consuming for the Company to obtain debt financing; and (iii) debt financing generally involves pledge of assets and/or securities, the Group is currently lack of available assets collateral, we consider debt financing not being a viable financing alternative for the Group.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

In respect of equity financing, considering that (i) placing under general and/or specific mandates would inevitably lead to immediate dilution in the shareholding interest of the existing Shareholders; (ii) pre-emptive fundraising methods such as rights issue or open offer normally take at least three months, and lengthy discussions with potential commercial underwriters may also be involved; (iii) additional costs, including but not limited to underwriting commission and other professional fees, may be incurred; and (iv) rights issue, open offer and placement of new Shares may be subject to underwriting uncertainty and market risk, we consider equity financing not being a viable financing alternative for the Group.

In view of the foregoing, in particular the time and costs incurred, and the uncertainties involved for the debt financing and equity financing as compared to that of the Proposed Fourth Amendments, we are of the view that the Proposed Fourth Amendments is comparatively more appropriate and of the best interest of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

Apart from the extension of maturity date of the Convertible Bonds under Proposed Fourth Amendments, we reviewed the Group's recent financial performance and financing activities as part of our due diligence, and noted the following findings:

- (i) According to the published financial information of the Group, we noted that the Group has been in loss making position for six financial years since the year ended 31 March 2019. With reference to the Annual Report 2024, the Group has net current liabilities position as at 31 March 2023 and 31 March 2024 and also lack of available assets collateral whereas the Group's assets are mainly office equipment and trade receivables as at 31 March 2024 which are not available to be pledged;
- (ii) After reviewing the Interim Report 2024 and Annual Report 2024, we noted that the gearing ratio, which was calculated by dividing total other long-term liabilities and convertible bonds by total equity, increased from approximately 33.8% as at 31 March 2023 to approximately 88.3% as at 31 March 2024 and further increased to approximately 331.3% as at 30 September 2024. The gearing ratio increased sharply as at 30 September 2024 was mainly due to increase in liability component of convertible bonds and decrease in the Group's net assets as discussed in above section "Financial performance of the Group";
- (iii) Referring to the latest published financial statements in the Interim Report 2024, we also noted that the bank balances and cash and net current liabilities as at 30 September 2024 was approximately HK$3.2 million and HK$30.1 million, respectively;

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

- (iv) With reference to the announcements of the Company dated 17 December 2024, 20 December 2024, 7 January 2025 and 4 March 2025 in relation to placing of new shares under general mandates, the net proceeds of the placing were approximately HK$4.9 million. The Company intended and proposed to use the proceeds for repaying a portion of the Group's current debt for its legal and professional fees and operating cost for IT development and technical support cost which is around HK$3.0 million in total and the remaining use of proceeds will be used as general working capital. The placing of new shares was completed on 4 March 2025; and
- (v) As confirmed by the Directors, the Company has attempted to apply for the debts with 2 commercial banks and has been rejected at the first stage of the application due to recent loss making position and/or currently lack of quality assets collateral. The Company has also applied an Independent Third Party licensed money lender which requests for a quality guarantor to offer a borrowing with around 24% annual interest rate and 48% default interest rate. Considering that offer of lending from the Independent Third Party licensed money lender at a higher interest rate and default interest rate due to the current financial position of the Company. Therefore, we are of the view that the interest rate and default interest rate of the Proposed Fourth Amendments are more favourable to the Group than those offered by the Independent Third Party licensed money lender.

With reference to our independent findings in the above (i) six financial years loss making position, (ii) increase in gearing ratio of the Group and (iii) low bank balances and cash and net current liabilities position as at 30 September 2024, we concurred with the Directors' view that the Group is difficult to obtain bank borrowings at favourable terms under its current financial position. According to the Interim Report 2024, the trade receivables, other receivables and bank balances and cash as at 30 September 2024 were approximately HK$5.8 million, HK$7.9 million and HK$3.2 million, respectively, which were offset by trade payables and other payables of approximately HK$6.7 million and HK$24.1 million, respectively. The net outstanding deficit amount was approximately HK$13.9 million which is not sufficient to be repaid by utilising the net proceeds of approximately HK$4.9 million from the recent placing of new shares mentioned in above (iv). As the Group do not have sufficient internal resources to repay the Convertible Bonds even if they plan to utilise net proceeds from the recent placing of new shares, we believe that the Proposed Fourth Amendments would relieve the pressure on the repayment of Convertible Bonds and its liabilities as well as the deployment of its fund for general working capital of the Company. Therefore, we are of the view that although the Proposed Fourth Amendments are not in ordinary and usual course of business of the Group, they are in the interest of the Company and Shareholders as a whole.

On 10 June 2020, the Company entered into a placing agreement (the “CB Placing Agreement”) with SBI as placing agent, pursuant to which the Company agreed to place through SBI the Convertible Bonds in an aggregate principal amount of up to HK$11,850,000 to not less than six places at the initial conversion price of HK$0.15 per Share upon and subject to the provisions of the CB Placing Agreement and the CB Terms and Conditions. Completion of the placing of the Convertible Bonds in an aggregate principal amount of HK$11,850,000 to six places took place on 26 June 2020. The aggregate number of Shares which may fall to be allotted and issued by the Company upon conversion of the Convertible Bonds in full at the initial conversion price of HK$0.15 per Share is 79,000,000 Shares.

The First Addendum took effect on 20 September 2022 with the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds extended for a period of six months to 23 December 2022.

On 18 October 2022, the Company executed the Second Addendum to amend and/or alter the CB Terms and Conditions with a view to giving effect to (i) further extend the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds for a period of twelve months; (ii) delete the additional interest at the rate of 10% per annum on the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds in any event if the Bondholder has not exercised any of its Conversion Rights to convert the whole or any part of the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds during the Conversion Period; (iii) adjust the conversion price of the Convertible Bonds to HK$0.1 per Conversion Share; and (iv) extend the scope of the Conversion Rights to convert the whole or part of the aggregate sum of the outstanding principal amount and any outstanding accrued interest of the Convertible Bonds into Conversion Shares during the Conversion Period.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

On 19 October 2022, the Company was informed by the then Bondholders that they had entered into the Transfer Agreements to transfer the Convertible Bonds to Metagate and Mr. Choy. Specifically, out of the total principal amount of HK$11,850,000, Metagate acquired HK$6,380,000, while Mr. Choy acquired HK$5,470,000.

On 2 January 2024, the Company executed the Third Addendum to amend and/or alter the CB Terms and Conditions with a view to giving effect to (i) further extension of the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds for a period of one year; (ii) adjust the interest rate of 7% accrued on the principal amount of the outstanding Convertible Bonds payable by the Company to 12% per annum; (iii) charge a Default Interest of 20% on any overdue principal and accrued interest of the outstanding Convertible Bonds payable by the Company; and (iv) adjust the conversion price of the Convertible Bonds to HK$0.088 per Conversion Share.

Pursuant to the CB Terms and Conditions (as amended by the Third Addendum), the Convertible Bonds mature on the date falling upon the expiry of four years and six months from the date on which the Convertible Bonds are issued or if such date is not a Business Day, the immediately preceding Business Day (which is 24 December 2024 (the “Existing Maturity Date”)).

On 30 December 2024, by virtue of the written resolutions signed and approved by all existing Bondholders who hold the total outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds, the Bondholders have conditionally agreed to the Proposed Fourth Amendments. Additionally, the Bondholders have unconditionally confirmed to the Company that:

- (i) the Company is not required to redeem the Convertible Bonds in full on the maturity date (as extended by the Third Addendum); and
- (ii) the Company will not be in breach of any of the CB Terms and Conditions as a result of not redeeming or converting the Convertible Bonds.

THE FOURTH ADDENDUM

Pursuant to the terms of the Fourth Addendum, subject to the fulfilment of the Conditions Precedent, it is agreed between the Company and the Bondholders that the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds shall be further extended from “the date falling upon the expiry of four years and six months from the date on which the Convertible Bonds are issued or if such date is not a Business Day, the immediate preceding Business Day” (which is 24 December 2024) to “the date falling upon the expiry of six years and six months from the date on which the Convertible Bonds are issued, or if such date is not a Business Day, the immediate preceding Business Day” (which is 24 December 2026 (the “New Maturity Date”)).

Save for the Proposed Fourth Amendments, all other terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds shall remain unchanged, and the outstanding Convertible Bonds shall remain in full force, validity, and effect in accordance with the terms set out therein.

Conditions Precedent

The Fourth Addendum and the CB Terms and Conditions shall take effect subject to the fulfilment of all of the following Conditions Precedent:

To the best of the Directors' knowledge, information, and belief, and after conducting all reasonable inquiries, as of the Latest Practicable Date, the necessary consents and approvals as stated in condition (d) above refer to the resolutions of Metagate regarding the approval of the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated therein.

None of the Conditions Precedent is waivable by the Company or the Bondholders.

As at the Latest Practicable Date, none of the aforesaid Conditions Precedent has been fulfilled.

Effect of the Fourth Addendum

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

Save for the Proposed Fourth Amendments, all other terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds shall remain unchanged, and the outstanding Convertible Bonds shall remain in full force, validity, and effect in accordance with the terms set out therein.

The Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest and the Conversion Shares

Subject to the Proposed Fourth Amendments as provided under the Fourth Addendum becoming effective, based on the sum of the Outstanding Principal Amount (i.e., HK$11,850,000) and the maximum aggregate outstanding accrued interest (including accrued interest of HK$6,746,059 up to the New Maturity Date and the accrued Default Interest of HK$2,560,271 up to the New Maturity Date; assuming that no accrued interest would be settled between the Latest Practicable Date and the New Maturity Date) of the Convertible Bonds as at the New Maturity Date of HK$9,306,330 (the “Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest”), a maximum number of 240,412,840 Conversion Shares shall be allotted and issued upon exercise in full of the Conversion Rights (including a maximum number of 105,753,749 Conversion Shares in respect of the Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest).

Assuming that there is no repayment of any accrued interest (including accrued Default Interest) of the Convertible Bonds by the Company during the period from the Latest Practicable Date to the New Maturity Date, the Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest (i.e., HK$9,306,330) is calculated based on the following formula:

Accrued Interest

- (i) Before the Third Amendments:

$$\begin{array}{rcccl} \text{Aggregate Outstanding} & & & \text{Interest period of 1,093 days} & \\ \text{Principal Amount} & \times & 7\% & \times & \text{covering the period from} \\ \text{(i.e., HK$11,850,000)} & & & & \text{29 December 2020}^{(1)} \text{ to} & = \text{HK$2,483,955} \\ & & & & \text{26 December 2023}^{(2)} & \\ & & & & \hline & & & & \text{365 days} \end{array}$$

The accrued interest before the Third Amendments represents accrued interest amount of the outstanding principal amount with original interest rate (i.e., 7%) accrued on a day-to-day basis from the day after the first interest payment date after the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds on the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds outstanding and payable by the Company semi-annually in arrears on the dates falling upon the expiry of six months and one year after the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds and on the anniversary(ies) of such dates for each year thereafter up to and including the last interest payment date before the date of the Third Addendum.

 & & \hline
 & & 365 \text{ days}
 \end{array}
 = \text{HK$4,262,104}$$

The accrued interest after the Third Amendments represents accrued interest amount of the outstanding principal amount with adjusted interest rate (i.e., 12%) accrued on a day-to-day basis from the day after the last interest payment date before the date of the Third Addendum on the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds outstanding and payable by the Company semiannually in arrears on the anniversary(ies) of the dates falling upon the expiry of six months and one year after the date of issue of the Convertible Bonds for each year thereafter up to and including New Maturity Date.

Total outstanding accrued interest until the New Maturity Date:

11. The day after the latest interest payment date after the date of the Third Addendum and before the date of the Fourth Addendum.
12. The last day that the Convertible Bonds bear interest semi-annually during the first semiannual period (i.e., 27 December 2024 to 26 June 2025) as extended by the Proposed Fourth Amendments.
13. The day after the first interest payment date after the date of the Fourth Addendum.
14. The last day that the Convertible Bonds bear interest semi-annually during the second semiannual period (i.e., 27 June 2025 to 26 December 2025) as extended by the Proposed Fourth Amendments.

16. The last day that the Convertible Bonds bear interest semi-annually during the third semiannual period (i.e., 27 December 2025 to 26 June 2026) as extended by the Proposed Fourth Amendments.

* The above calculation is based on the assumption that there will be no further extensions and further events of default of the Convertible Bonds.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, an aggregate interest of the Convertible Bonds of approximately HK$420,000, which covered an interest period from the date on which the Convertible Bonds were issued (i.e., 26 June 2020) to 28 December 2020, had been repaid by the Company to the Bondholders.

As disclosed in the Company's interim report for the six months ended 30 September 2024, despite further improvement of the Covid-19 pandemic situation, there are still challenges in the PRC's economic recovery which may adversely affect tourism and accordingly the Group's business. Therefore, having considered (i) the Group has incurred continuous losses starting from the year ended 31 March 2019; (ii) the Group has recorded net current liabilities since 2022; and (iii) the full redemption of the Convertible Bonds would impose an immediate cash outflow of HK$16,359,188, comprising the Outstanding Principal Amount of HK$11,850,000, and the maximum aggregate outstanding accrued interest (including accrued and default interest of HK$4,473,349 up to the Existing Maturity Date, calculated in accordance with the formula under the paragraph headed "Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest and the Conversion Shares" as disclosed in the circular dated 21 February 2024). This substantial cash outflow would severely strain the Company's liquidity position, especially considering that as of 31 January 2025, the Group's cash and cash equivalents (excluding restricted cash) amounted to HK$896,780, representing only 5.48% of the total redemption obligation of HK$16,359,188, the Group has been unable to discharge its liabilities related to the repayment of the outstanding accrued interest on the Convertible Bonds to the Bondholders in accordance with the CB Terms and Conditions.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

4. Principal terms of the Proposed Fourth Amendments

Details of the CB Terms and Conditions (as amended by the Fourth Addendum)

As disclosed in the Company's interim report for the six months ended 30 September 2024, despite further improvement of the COVID-19 pandemic situation, there are still challenges in the PRC's economic recovery which may adversely affect tourism and accordingly the Group's business. Therefore, having considered (i) the Group has incurred continuous losses starting from the year ended 31 March 2019; (ii) the Group has recorded net current liabilities since 2022; and (iii) the full redemption of the Convertible Bonds would impose an immediate cash outflow of HK$16,359,188, comprising the Outstanding Principal Amount of HK$11,850,000, and the maximum aggregate outstanding accrued interest (including accrued and default interest of HK$4,473,349 up to the Existing Maturity Date, calculated in accordance with the formula under the paragraph headed "Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest and the Conversion Shares" as disclosed in the circular dated 21 February 2024). This substantial cash outflow would severely strain the Company's liquidity position, especially considering that as of 31 January 2025, the Group's cash and cash equivalents (excluding restricted cash) amounted to HK$896,780, representing only 5.48% of the total redemption obligation of HK$16,359,188, the Group has been unable to discharge its liabilities related to the repayment of the outstanding accrued interest on the Convertible Bonds to the Bondholders in accordance with the CB Terms and Conditions.

Save for the Proposed Fourth Amendments, all other terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds shall remain unchanged, and the outstanding Convertible Bonds shall remain in full force, validity, and effect in accordance with the terms set out therein.

Conversion Rights and Conversion Shares

As stated in the Letter from the Board, the Bondholders will be entitled to, at any time during the Conversion Period, to convert the whole or part of the aggregate sum of the outstanding principal amount and any outstanding accrued interest of the Convertible Bond (in the minimum amount of HK$1,000,000 or any whole multiple thereof on each conversion) into Conversion Shares, unless the outstanding principal is less than HK$1,000,000 in which case the whole of such amount shall be converted.

Upon the implementation of the Proposed Fourth Amendments, and assuming no interest of the Convertible Bonds is settled or paid to the Bondholders between the Latest Practicable Date and the New Maturity Date while excluding any Default Interest accrued after the New Maturity Date, the maximum number of Shares that may be allotted and issued upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds at the Conversion Price is 240,412,840 Shares, representing: (i) approximately 12.47% of the total issued share capital of the Company as at the Latest Practicable Date; and (ii) approximately 11.09% of the total issued share capital following the allotment and issuance of the Conversion Shares, assuming there are no other changes to the Company's issued share capital between the Latest Practicable Date and the full conversion of the Convertible Bonds.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

We noted that the Conversion Rights allows the Bondholders convert the whole or part of the aggregate sum of the outstanding principal amount and any outstanding accrued interest including the Default Interest of the Convertible Bonds into Conversion Shares, and we discussed with the Directors that they considers the Conversion Rights also allow the Company to convert the outstanding accrued interest into Conversion Shares which provide reduce imminent pressure to repay the interest by cash to the Bondholders (assuming the Bondholders convert all the Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest of the Convertible Bond into Conversion Shares). We also noted that the Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest shall be HK$9,306,330, which allows the Bondholders to convert a maximum of 105,753,749 Conversion Shares, which represents: (i) approximately 5.49% of the existing issued Shares immediately prior to the exercise of any of the Conversion Rights; and (ii) approximately 4.88% of the issued Shares as enlarged by the issue of the Conversion Shares upon exercise in full of the Conversion Rights, assuming there will be no other change in the issued share capital of the Company between the Latest Practicable Date and the full conversion of the Convertible Bonds. Moreover, given a theoretical dilution effect (as defined under Rule 10.44A of the GEM Listing Rules) represented by a discount of approximately 4.85%, which is calculated based on the theoretical diluted price of approximately HK$0.1473 per Share (as defined under Rule 10.44A of the GEM Listing Rules taking account the higher of (i) the closing price of the Shares as quoted on the Stock Exchange on the date of the Fourth Addendum of HK$0.15 per Share; and (ii) the average of the closing prices of the Shares as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the five (5) previous consecutive trading days prior to the date of the Fourth Addendum of approximately HK$0.1548 per Share), we considered the abovementioned mechanism has low theoretical dilution effect to the Shareholders of the Company.

The Conversion Price

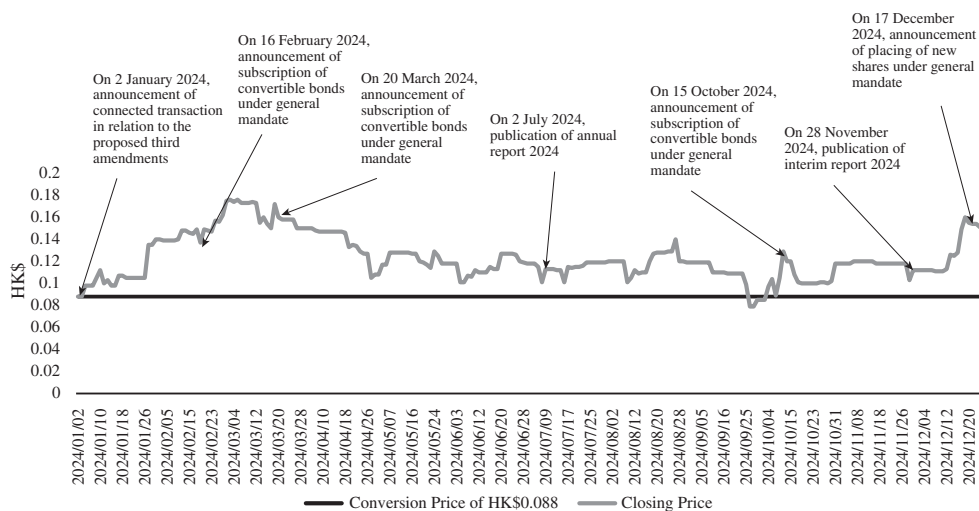

As disclosed in the Letter from the Board, the Conversion Price of HK$0.088 per Share represents:

- (i) a discount of approximately 40.54% to the closing price of HK$0.148 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange on the Latest Practicable Date;
- (ii) a discount of approximately 41.33% to the closing price of HK$0.150 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange on 30 December 2024, being the date of the Fourth Addendum;
- (iii) discount of approximately 42.41% to the average closing price of HK$0.1528 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the last five consecutive trading days up to and including the date of the Fourth Addendum;

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

- (iv) a discount of approximately 39.39% to the average closing price of HK$0.1452 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the last ten consecutive trading days up to and including the date of the Fourth Addendum; and
- (v) a theoretical dilution effect (as defined under Rule 10.44A of the GEM Listing Rules) represented by a discount of approximately 4.85%, which is calculated based on the theoretical diluted price of approximately HK$0.1473 per Share (as defined under Rule 10.44A of the GEM Listing Rules, taking account the higher of (i) the closing price of the Shares as quoted on the Stock Exchange on the date of the Fourth Addendum of HK$0.15 per Share; and (ii) the average of the closing prices of the Shares as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the five (5) previous consecutive trading days prior to the date of the Fourth Addendum of approximately HK$0.1548 per Share).

To assess the fairness and reasonableness of the Conversion Price, we have performed a review on the daily closing price of the Shares from 31 December 2023 to and including 30 December 2024, the date of the Fourth Addendum (the “Review Period”), (being a period of one year, which is commonly used for analysis purpose to illustrate the general trend of the daily closing price of the Shares) and compared with the Conversion Price. We consider that an approximate period of twelve months is a fair, reasonable and sufficient period to provide a general overview of the recent price movements of the Shares free from the influence of, if any, short term market volatility for conducting a reasonable comparison between the closing price of the Shares and the Conversion Price. The comparison of daily closing prices of the Shares and the Conversion Price is illustrated as follows:

Data source: The website of the Stock Exchange

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

During the Review Period, the closing price was approximately HK$0.079 per Share (the “Lowest Closing Price”) recorded on 26 September 2024 and 27 September 2024 respectively to HK$0.176 per Share (the “Highest Closing Price”) recorded on 1 March 2024 and 5 March 2024 respectively. The average closing price during the Review Period was HK$0.123 per Share (the “Average Closing Price”).

As illustrated in the chart above, the Conversion Price of HK$0.088 per Share falls within the range between the Lowest Closing Price and the Highest Closing Price but is lower than the Average Closing Price and it represents (i) a premium of approximately 11.39% over the Lowest Closing Price; (ii) a discount of approximately 28.68% over the Average Closing Price of HK$0.123 per Share during the Review Period; and (iii) a discount of approximately 42.41% over the average closing prices of HK$0.1528 per Share as quoted on the Stock Exchange for the last five consecutive trading days up to and including the date of the Fourth Addendum. We noted that the closing price of the Shares was HK$0.088 at the start of the Review Period and increased to the Highest Closing Price. The closing price of the Shares substantially decreased from the Highest Closing Price to HK$0.105 on 29 April 2024 and then fluctuated between HK$0.101 to HK$0.140 until a sudden drop from HK$0.109 on 24 September 2024 to the Lowest Closing Price. The closing price of the Share then bounded back to HK$0.129 on 10 October 2024 and fluctuated between HK$0.100 to HK$0.120 until a sharply increase from HK$0.113 on 12 December 2024 to HK$0.160 on 19 December 2024. After the sharp increase of closing price of the Shares, it was in a decreasing trend at the end of the Review Period. As advised by the Directors, they are not aware of any specific reasons for the aforesaid closing price fluctuation of the Shares.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

Although the Conversion Price was lower than the Average Closing Price and represented a discount to mostly all closing prices of the Shares during the Review Period, we consider that (i) a decreasing trend of closing price of the Shares at the end of the Review Period which the closing price of the Shares decreased from HK$0.160 on 19 December 2024 to HK$0.150 on 30 December 2024 and further decreased to HK$0.148 as at the Latest Practicable Date which show that the discount of the Conversion Price over the recent closing price of the Share was further lessened; (ii) the Group has been in loss making position for six financial years since the year ended 31 March 2019 and has net current liabilities position as at 31 March 2023 and 31 March 2024; (iii) the Conversion Price, which represents a discount of approximately 41.33% to the closing price per Share on the date of the Fourth Addendum and approximately 42.41% over the average closing price per Share for the last five consecutive trading days up to and including the date of the Fourth Addendum, show discounts that are within the ranges of those represented by the CB Comparables (as defined hereinafter) as discussed in further details in the next subsection headed “Comparable analysis” below; and (iv) a favourable discount to prevailing market prices of the Shares would attract the Bondholders to extend the maturity date of the Convertible Bonds. As confirmed by the Directors, the Bondholders offered not to change the Conversion Price before agreeing the Proposed Fourth Amendments. The Fourth Addendum also allows the Group to continue to refinance its debts under Convertible Bonds on normal commercial terms and enable the Company to retain flexibility in the deployment of its funds for general working capital which is important to the Company’s operation in such challenging market environment. Therefore, we concur with the Directors’ view that the Conversion Price is fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

Comparable analysis

As part of our analysis, we further identified subscription/placing of convertible bonds/notes under specific mandate (the “CB Comparables”) which were announced by companies listed on the Stock Exchange from 31 December 2022 and up to the Latest Practicable Date (“Review CB Period”), being a period of 2 years prior to and including the date of the Fourth Addendum. Initially, we set the review period for a year, however, given the limited number of six CB Comparables being identified, to better serve the purpose in forming a meaningful comparison for assessment with sufficient number of comparable companies, we then extended our analysis for one more year up to 2 years prior to and including the date of the Fourth Addendum. We consider that the Review CB Period is fair and representative to reflect the market conditions and sentiments in the Hong Kong stock market and to generate a sufficient and meaningful number of samples of representative comparable transactions for the purpose of our analysis. The CB Comparables (i) are with principal amount being not less than HK$2 million and not more than HK$200 million (falling within a reasonable range and based on the sum of the Outstanding Principal Amount and Maximum Outstanding Accrued Interest of the Proposed Fourth Amendments, i.e. approximately HK$20 million, which is 10 times of the minimum of the range and divided by 10 of the maximum of the range); (ii) have not been terminated or lapsed as at the date of the Fourth Addendum; (iii) are connected/independent third party transactions as the terms of both connected and independent third party transactions are based on prevailing market conditions and regardless of whether the subscribers are connected persons or not and represent an unbiased reference on market terms; and (iv) are excluded those for the corporate equity restructuring and takeover of the listed companies as the Fourth Addendum is mainly involving in debt restructuring with the Bondholders in order to solve the financial pressure facing by the Group which was not related to placing the Convertible Bonds under corporate equity restructuring and takeover issues. We do not include the market capitalisation of the issuers as one of the criteria in our analysis as the subscription/placing of convertible bonds/notes is not directly related to its market capitalisation. To the best of our knowledge and as far as we are aware of, we found 23 transactions which met the said criteria and they are exhaustive as far as we are aware of. However, we have excluded three comparable transactions in our analysis as outliers which have been shown in below table and there are 20 comparable transactions eventually included in our analysis.

Independent Shareholders should note that the businesses, operations, financial positions and prospects of the Company may not be identical to the CB Comparables. Although the companies involved in the CB Comparables are not identical to the Company in terms of principal business, operating scale and financial position, we consider that the CB Comparables could provide a general understanding on subscription/placing of convertible bonds/notes under specific mandate in the Hong Kong stock market because the CB Comparables of the respective companies are under the market environment, and market sentiment during the Review Period and are therefore considered to be reasonable reference on the recent market practice and conditions regarding the Fourth Addendum. We have not conducted any independent investigation with regards to the businesses, operations, financial positions and prospects of the companies but it shall not affect our analysis as we are comparing the general trend of subscription/placing of convertible bonds/notes under specific mandate in the market.

Conversion price

As set out in the table above, we note that the conversion price to: (i) the closing share price on the last trading day prior to/on the date of announcement in relation to the CB Comparables ranged from a discount of approximately 90.58% to a premium of approximately 57.14%, with the average being the discount of approximately 5.00% and the median being the premium of approximately 2.5%; and (ii) the average closing share price for the last five consecutive trading days up to and including the date of the agreement in relation to the respective CB Comparables ranged from a discount of approximately 90.55% to a premium of approximately 54.93%, with the average being the discount of approximately 4.20% and the median being the premium of approximately 4.40%. As the Conversion Price is (i) at a discount of approximately 41.33% to the closing price per Share on the date of the Fourth Addendum; and (ii) at a discount of approximately 42.41% over the average closing price per Share for the last five consecutive trading days up to and including the date of the Fourth Addendum, the discounts as represented by the Conversion Price are within the range and more significant to the average and median of those of the CB Comparables.

As discussed with the Directors, we note that (a) the Group is under financial pressure given the followings: (i) the Group has been in loss making position for six financial years since the year ended 31 March 2019; (ii) the Group has net current liabilities position as at 31 March 2023 and 31 March 2024; (iii) as of 31 January 2025, the Group's cash and cash equivalents (excluding restricted cash) amounted to HK$896,780, representing only 5.48% of the total redemption obligation of HK$16,359,188; (iv) the Group's gearing ratio, calculated by dividing total other long-term liabilities and convertible bonds by total equity, was approximately 331.3% as at 30 September 2024; and (v) the Company has attempted to apply for the debts with 2 commercial banks and has been rejected; (b) a decreasing trend of closing price of the Shares at the end of the Review Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date mentioned in above sub-section headed "The Conversion Price" which show that the discount of the Conversion Price over the recent closing price of the Share was further lessened; and (c) the Conversion Price represents a significant premium over the consolidated unaudited net asset value of the Company attributable to the Shareholders as at 30 September 2024 of approximately HK$0.0041 per Share, we concur that the discount of Conversion Price to the closing price per Share which is close to the maximum discount of the CB Comparables is fair and reasonable. We understand that the Directors consider the Proposed Fourth Amendments enables the Group to (a) extend the maturity date of Convertible Bonds and the barrier of seeking other funding to redeem the Convertible Bonds and (b) to be more efficient to retain cash resources of the Group as its working capital. Considering that the extension of mature date of the Convertible Bonds enable the Group to overcome the difficulties of seeking for other funding and be more efficient to retain cash resources of the Group as the Group's working capital, we are of the view that the Conversion Price is on normal commercial terms, fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

Interest rate

As presented by the table above, the CB Comparables had annual interest rates from nil to 9.00% and the interest rate of the Convertible Bonds is 12.00% which is higher than the range of those of the CB Comparables. After taking into account (a) the prevailing unfeasible lending situation and tight lending conditions offered by commercial banks in Hong Kong and the fact that the Company has been rejected to apply for debts from 2 commercial banks; (b) the prevailing lending rate offered by an Independent Third Party licensed money lender in Hong Kong is more than 12% per annum after reviewing the correspondences provided by the Company between the said lender and the Company; (c) the net current liabilities position of the Group as at 30 September 2024; (d) no secured collateral or asset can be provided from the Group to apply for loans; and (e) the Company is in loss making for six consecutive financial years since the year ended 31 March 2019, we are of the view that the interest rate of 12% for the Convertible Bonds is fair and reasonable. The default interest of the CB Comparables ranged from 2.00% to 36.00% with the average and median being of approximately 14.50% and 10.00% respectively, the Default Interest is within the range of those of the CB Comparables and higher than the average and median of those of the CB Comparables. After considering that the default interest rate offered by the Independent Third Party licensed money lender is at the highest rate which is 48% compared to those of the CB Comparables, thus, we are of the view that the Default Interest is also fair and reasonable despite it is higher than the average and median of those of the CB Comparables.

Term to maturity

The term to maturity of the Comparables ranged from 0.5 year to 10 years with the average of approximately 3.13 years and median of 2.5 years. Considering that the term to maturity of the Convertible Bonds which is 6.5 years including two years in extension, falls within such range and higher than that of the average and median, we concur with the Directors' view that the term to maturity of the Convertible Bonds is fair and reasonable so far as the Independent Shareholders are concerned.

Having considered the above analysis, we are of the view that the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including but not limited to the Proposed Fourth Amendments) are on normal commercial terms, fair and reasonable, and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

Potential dilution effect on the shareholding of the Company

With reference to the shareholding table in the section headed “Effect on the shareholding structure of the Company” of the Letter from the Board and as confirmed by the Directors, assuming that there will be no other change to the total issued share capital of the Company between the Latest Practicable Date and upon the full conversion of the Convertible Bonds and that no interest of the Convertible Bonds would be settled and paid to the Bondholders and/or the Subscribers between the Latest Practicable Date and the New Maturity Date without taking into account any Default Interest accrued after the New Maturity Date, the shareholding in the Company held by the other public Shareholders will be diluted from approximately 47.58% as at the Latest Practicable Date to (i) approximately 42.29% upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds and none of the 2024 Convertible Bonds has been converted into the Shares; (ii) approximately 44.03% upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds and the 2024 Convertible Bonds; and (iii) approximately 45.69% upon full conversion of the Convertible Bonds, the 2024 Convertible Bonds and the 2025 Convertible Bonds. The potential dilution effect of the Company is 4.85% which is within the range of those of the CB Comparables and lower than those discounts on average of approximately 20.77% and the median of approximately 14.94% of the CB Comparables. However, such dilution effect is for illustration purpose only as, subject to the terms and conditions of the Convertible Bonds, the Bondholders will be entitled to, at any time during the Conversion Period, to convert the whole or part of the aggregate sum of the outstanding principal amount and any outstanding accrued interest of the Convertible Bond (in the minimum amount of HK$1,000,000 or any whole multiple thereof on each conversion) into Conversion Shares, unless the outstanding principal is less than HK$1,000,000 in which case the whole of such amount shall be converted and the exercise of the Conversion Right will not cause the Company to be unable to meet the public float requirement under the GEM Listing Rules.

We are aware of the potential dilution effect as a result of the conversion of the Convertible Bonds based on the Conversion Price. Nonetheless, having considered that (i) the Group has been in loss making position for six financial years since the year ended 31 March 2019 and has net current liabilities position as at 31 March 2023 and 31 March 2024; (ii) the Group’s immediate needs for financial resources to settle the Convertible Bonds which matured on 24 December 2024 under the Third Addendum; (iii) the Convertible Bonds are the preferred option over debt financing alternatives as the Company had high gearing ratio as at 30 September 2024 and was recently rejected by 2 commercial banks for borrowings; (iv) the potential dilution effect of the Company is within the range of those of the CB Comparables and lower than those of the average and median of the CB Comparables; (v) the terms of the Proposed Fourth Amendments are fair and reasonable so far as the Independent Shareholders are concerned; (vi) there is conversion restriction in order to comply with the GEM Listing Rules; and (vii) the reasons for and benefits of the Fourth addendum as mentioned in the above section “Reasons for and benefits of the Proposed Fourth Amendments”, we concur with the view of the Directors that such potential dilution effect on the shareholding interests of the existing public Shareholders resulting from the exercise of the Convertible Bonds is justifiable.

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

a. Effect on liquidity

According to the Interim Report 2024, the unaudited bank balances and cash of the Group was approximately HK$3.17 million as at 30 September 2024. Save for the cash outflow of the expenses for the legal and professional fees and expenses incurred by the Company in relation to the Fourth Addendum which is estimated to be approximately HK$163,000, there would be no immediate cash outflow to be incurred in the settlement of the principal amount of the Convertible Bonds (other than the early redemption) held by the Bondholders as confirmed by the Directors.

b. Effect on net assets

Upon the approval of the Fourth Addendum, the Convertible Bonds will be recognised as non-current liabilities of the Group. There may be changes in the fair value of the Convertible Bonds as a result of the Proposed Fourth Amendments. The possible changes will be subject to the valuation from independent valuer and the review of the Company's auditor during the annual audit and the preparation of the consolidated financial statement of the Group for the financial year ended.

It should be noted that the aforementioned analyses are for illustrative purposes only and do not purport to represent how the financial performance and the financial position of the Group will be upon completion of the Fourth Addendum.

RECOMMENDATION

Having considered the principal factors and reasons as summarised in followings: (i) the Group has been in loss making position for six financial years since the year ended 31 March 2019 and has net current liabilities position as at 31 March 2023 and 31 March 2024; (ii) as of 31 January 2025, the Group's cash and cash equivalents (excluding restricted cash) amounted to HK$896,780, representing only 5.48% of the total redemption obligation of HK$16,359,188; (iii) the Group's immediate needs for financial resources to settle the Convertible Bonds which matured on 24 December 2024 under the Third Addendum; (iv) the Convertible Bonds are the preferred option over debt financing alternatives as the Company had high gearing ratio as at 30 September 2024 and was recently rejected by 2 commercial banks for borrowings; (v) the Conversion Price represents a significant premium over the consolidated unaudited net asset value of the Company attributable to the Shareholders as at 30 September 2024; (vi) the discounts as represented by the Conversion Price are within the range and close to the maximum discounts of the CB Comparables; (vii) the term to maturity and potential dilution effect of the Company is within the range of those of the CB Comparables, we are of the opinion that although the entering into of the Fourth Addendum was not in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group, the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including but not limited to the Proposed

LETTER FROM VINCO FINANCIAL

Fourth Amendments), are on normal commercial terms, fair and reasonable so far as the Independent Shareholders are concerned and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. Accordingly, we recommend the Independent Shareholders and the Independent Board Committee to advise the Independent Shareholders to vote in favour of the relevant resolution for approving the Fourth Addendum and the transactions contemplated thereunder (including but not limited to the Proposed Fourth Amendments) at the EGM.

Yours faithfully,
For and on behalf of
